Area Info

Portland is an old seacoast town. It is also a funky city filled with galleries, one-of-kind boutiques and shops, and incredible restaurants serving everything from New England clam chowder, lobster rolls and Maine seafood to nouvelle cuisine.

Portland is the banking capital of northern New England, home to major international law firms, import/export companies, and modern high-rise office buildings located in historic districts with centuries old architecture.

Portland stands as one of the few working waterfronts left in the United States, acting as New England's largest tonnage seaport and second largest fishing port.

Portland is also the second largest oil port on the East Coast and the largest foreign inbound transit tonnage port in the United States!

Portland is Maine's largest city with 66,000 full time residents, approximately 100,000 in the surrounding areas.

House Policies

Safety

OG is a city owned and operated venue. We must comply with OSHA, National, State and City regulations and codes. The technical staff is on hand to help with observing these rules and regulations. It is not always convenient or easy to accomplish this. All lessees and their staff are expected to help keep OG a safe working environment.

Lighting

The only lighting at Ocean Gateway is overhead halogen lights. Any production lighting would have to be brought in and a list of suitable vendors can be provided upon request. Power is available, but limited. Please ask your assigned Event Coordinator if the building power supply is sufficient for your event.

Sound

There is no sound system at Ocean Gateway. A small portable sound system can be rented through RAFM or simply ask us for a list of preferred vendors. .
